On 15 December 1953, the Lessa troop training grounds was occupied by a guard detail of about 150 to 180 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with signal insignia and quartered in the permanent buildings of the cantonment west of the Lessa-Wiehe road near Kilometermarker 3.1. Source observed about 50 to 60 wooden officer billets and about 5 large wooden buildings with quarters and instruction rooms, each about 60 meters long. Fourteen high lookout posts were being built east of the road, about in line with the abovementioned buildings. A semi-underground emplacement was in front of each high lookout post.
